

put together the way I am. There are people who are timid, who are fearful, who are not informed, but despite those shortcomings, they still have certain rights which ought to be respected. But because it is recognized that there are bullying types of persons who will take advantage of those who tend not to be very strong, laws are enacted to protect the weak, to protect the unwary, to create parity, if possible, between those, between whom a great disparity exists without the benefit of the law. Senator Goll saying this is a consumer bill sounds kind of like ashes in the mouth to me because he is a new car dealer who is benefitting from the bill. It is like the tax gatherer saying, I'm collecting your taxes from you and this is in your best interest. The tax collector can not tell the tax payer what is in his or her best interest unless it is to say I'm not going to collect any more taxes. So Senator Goll as a new car dealer who is going to have responsibility shifted to the manufacturer that he may have some participation in now, can speak of it being for the consumer if he sees himself as a consumer. But if we are talking about the individual who walks into the wolf's lair as a lamb to purchase an automobile, excuse me Senator Lamb, broke my train of thought, but whatever the point was I think you knew what the point was with what I have said thus far so I am asking that you return this bill for the adoption of this amendment.
